

SANTAL

Makers of picturesque houses, the Santals do always have an eye for beauty. They show deep concern for personal hygiene and cleanliness of their surroundings. A characteristic feature of the Santal village is a sacred grove on the edge of the settlement where many spirits live and a series of annual festivals take place.

