

BANJARA

The Banjaras were earlier nomads but now-a-days they have settled life. Their dialect is a mixture of Hindi, Gujarati, Marathi, Punjabi etc. They call it Gaor. It has no script. Male and female are fond of ornaments and are traditional in their dress. They celebrate different festivals like Dusahara, Diwali, Holi, Gobardhan Puja, Teej, Sitala etc. They worship Mithu Bhuki, Sewabhaiya, Meera Maa etc.
